In other words, the purchasing power of a dollar is so changed since the time these laywers fixed a schedule of fees in their minds, that they should seriously consider conditions today and rectify their charges. Now, our membership will be interested to know that we asked for copy of all schedules in use by the County Associations, and we received a great many replies, indicating that there is a strong tendency to have a basic schedule of recommended fees, and too, where a schedule has not been adopted there is a general tendency to adhere to the schedule of our Association. Some of our members have suggested that it would be helpful in getting adequate compensation if the schedule of fees were printed in such form as a card, framed, or unframed, and hung in the lawyers...
