CONTEMPORARY EAST EUROPEAN POETRY: AN ANTHOLOGY (PAPERBACK)

Oxford University Press, USA, United States, 1994. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Expanded. 202 x 134 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Providing a unique window into a poetic tradition little known and little understood in the West, Contemporary East European Poetry features one hundred and thirty poets from ten countries, with works translated from fifteen languages. Poets born before 1940 are featured next to senior figures whose first distinguished work may date as far back as the twenties and thirties, but whose influence and works remained central during the two decades on which the collection focuses. While most of the poems are appearing here in English for the very first time, all are freshly translated for this volume. Earlier English versions, when they exist, appear side-by-side with the newly translated poem. There is no other volume available that even approaches...
