Rocky s husband, Bob, was just forty-two when she discovered him lying cold and lifeless on the bathroom floor . . . and Rocky s world changed forever. Quitting her job and chopping off all her hair, she leaves Massachusetts reinventing her past and taking a job as Animal Control Warden on Peak s Island, a tiny speck off the coast of Maine and a million miles away from everything she s lost. She leaves her career as a psychologist behind, only to find friendship with a woman whose brain misfires in the most wonderful way and a young girl who is trying to disappear. Rocky, a quirky and fallible character, discovers the healing process to be agonizingly slow. But then she meets Lloyd. A large black Labrador retriever, Lloyd enters Rocky s world with a primitive arrow sticking out of his shoulder. And so begins a remarkable friendship between a wounded woman and a wounded, lovable beast. As the unraveling mystery of Lloyd s accident and missing owner leads Rocky to an archery instructor, who draws her in even as she finds every reason to mistrust him, she discovers the life-altering revelation that grief can be transformed . . . and joy does exist in unexpected places. Jacqueline Sheehan eloquently and expertly channels both human and canine voices in this bittersweet island-set tale of wounded lives renewed. Suzanne Strempek Shea, author of Becoming Finola.
