We will have some continued discussion with you about it, but our current thinking does not include collapsing these two programs together. Mr. Hoekstra. Mr. McKeon. Mr. McKeon. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I, too, want to welcome you here, Mr. Secretary. I think it is refreshing to have a secretary who has served as a member of a school board and a superintendent of a large school district, someone who has come right from the firing line to now be able to hopefully take your experiences across the country to benefit others. There had been several education bills introduced in Congress calling for greater accountability in federal education spending but President Bushs No Child Left Behind is the only one that asks states to begin annual testing of public school students every year from grades three...
