

Canadian Battles: Canada's Role in Major World Conflicts

By Norman S. Leach

Folklore Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Canadian Battles: Canada's Role in Major World Conflicts, Norman S. Leach, Canadian soldiers, sailors and pilots have fought consistently above their weight class in the forefront of the world's major conflicts. And it was a Canadian, Lester B Pearson, whose idea of a peacekeeping force defined Canada's world role in a new way, drawing respect and recognition from countries around the world. Canada has a distinct and proud past when it comes to heroic struggles endured by our soldiers. From the War of 1812 to Vimy Ridge, the Dutch Liberation and even peacemaking efforts in Bosnia and Afghanistan, battles have been fought -- and won -- by the brave men and women who believed in freedom for all. Learn about Canadian participation in conflicts spanning continents and decades.
