Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For most, Christmas is a time filled with joy. But for some, it can be a difficult season. Our fears, the trials that may befall us, and our longings for those we've lost become especially poignant. Some of us may even feel that Christmas is not a time of celebration, but of sorrow. But let us consider what Scripture tells us about the first Christmas. What really happened? For the first time, God Himself-the Creator of the Universe, the King of Kings, the Everlasting Father-stepped into our world! He stepped in-not to enjoy the wealth or the beauty or the joys-but to experience our suffering, our longings, and our sorrows. He stepped in-not to rub shoulders with the strong, the powerful, and the wealthy people of this world-but to become one of the lowly, the despised, and the rejected of men. He stepped in-not to bask in the rays of the sun-but to experience the darkness. From the moment of His birth, He experienced far from ideal circumstances. And yet, we remember His...
