Excerpt: .prava jubens that could shake the justum et tenacem propositi virum; firm as the rock whose foundation was laid by the God of nature, he was as impracticable to the violent storm of abuse, as to the insulting breeze of flattery--and Or was justly executed. For twelve months after this, (and perhaps to this moment) the seat of Justice was the butt upon which all the arrows of sedition were discharged, and every essay and every paragraph concluded with, Chamberlain, ReMember Or. About this time I was speaking to the present Attorney General upon the steps of the King s Bench, when he was suddenly called into Court: There now, said he tome, I am called in to argue a question upon an executory devise, and I am utterly ignorant what M to say, or what is to be said upon it; the whole question is, whether and and or are convertible terms; whether or means and, and whether and means or, though, perhaps, the testator did not know the difference, and made his will, without consulting his grammar. Surely a question such as this, upon conjunctions copulative and disjunctive, should be referred to a grammar school, with an appeal - to a high court of dictionaries. From the impressiveness of his manner, I saw he was in serious tribulation, and, desirous of suggesting any hint that could relieve him, I asked him, which are you for? he answered, I vow to God I am...
