Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Our Presidents Mothers, Wives and Daughters and Some Washington Sermons Professor Thomas N. Haskell has had published in a neat volume his poems entitled The Wives of Our Presidents and some Washington Sermons, delivered at the National Capitol immediately preceding and during the period of the Civil war. The Presidential Sketches celebrate in stately verse the characteristics of the women who have presided in the White House, from Martha Washington to Mrs. McKinley, and due homage is paid to the splendid womanhood that has found a home in the official residence of the nation. The sermons include his first address in the Federal City on Duty and Interest (May 11, 1854); a Discourse on Immortality and Its Issues, before President Pierce: The History of the Bible and Its Influence on Civilization, delivered the night before Buchanan's inaugural, and God, Providence and the President's Oath. on the eve of Lincoln's first inauguration. Two of the most noted sermons are The American Soldier's Mission, preached to the Massachusetts First, just prior to its departure...
