CONFESSIONS OF A SELF-HELP WRITER: THE JOURNAL OF MICHAEL ENZO (HARDBACK)

Lagniappe Publishing, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 146 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. #1 Most Wished for on Indie Bound for over 10 weeks. A funny, audacious, and devastating work of fiction loosely based on factual events. As much a comedy as a tragedy, Confessions stands out to as a piece of unique literature that should be remembered for its originality as much as for its actual relevance as a mantra for living life in today's harsh reality. Dive into the psyche of one of the world's most profound advisors: a liar and a Quixotic adventurer who admits freely to both lurid depravity and emotional complexity. He's experienced a complete range of emotion by living fast, loose and irresponsibly. His mistakes would ruin most and not many would match his pension for drugs, booze and prostitution. Despite these demons he has fooled the unknowing public into thinking he is someone to revere and ironically, could be responsible for saving more people than Mother Teresa and Gandhi combined. Who is Michael Enzo? You certainly haven't heard of him since his entire canon was published under the names of movie stars, politicians and business leaders. But he's associated with more works than Agatha Christie, Dean Koontz and Stephen King. Two of the world's ten wealthiest men are said to have used Enzo as a ghost-writer, but not a single person willingly admitted to knowing him. Conversely I found glowing remarks from many of whom attribute their status in life to his Enzo's words and none cared for a minute that the famous names appearing on their books were not the actual portents of such sage advice. You don't want to find out what's in this journal if...
