THROUGH PRISON DOORS (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What if you were suddenly faced with the loss of your identity, the loss of friends and close family relationships, the complete loss of freedom and control over your own affairs and the loss of all of your previously devised future plans in a single moment? How would you react to such horrendous losses? In Through Prison Doors, the author describes a similar scenario, involving the true life experiences surrounding his conviction, sentencing, incarceration, time spent in prison and miraculous release, in spite of a supposed life sentence. He details the spectacular ways in which God's Word became alive in his life, and the lives of other inmates, as well as some of the supernatural acts which God used to provide, protect, guide and prepare him for a future which, in the minds of many, he would never see. The author discloses how God clearly spoke to him through a dream, how God restored lost memories from his past, how God grew the prison Church by more than five-fold in a relatively short period of time, how God restrained him from escaping, even when confronted with opportunities to do so, and how God directed his steps down a particular path which would lead to his eventual release. Through Prison Doors, focuses on the ability and desire of God to draw his children closer to Him by shining a light into the dark, often sinister world of prison life and by using His Word and His loving touch to transform the lives of ordinary people, no matter where they may be. The book is accompanied by an Appendix containing Questions for Contemplation and/or Discussion, designed to challenge...
